GREEKS TRY TO STEM INVASION

Bulgarian Troops Violently
Bombard Allies in Macedonia.

(Special to The Herald)

Athens, May 29.—Bulgarian troops equipped with German artillery and led by German officers are violently bombarding the Allies' positions on the Demir-Hissar front in Macedonia. The Bulgarians have penetrated the Greek territory for 15 miles and at some points where the Greek troops tried to stem the invasion they were vigorously shelled by the Bulgars. All the indications are that the long expected drive against the Allies in Macedonia is finally under way and that the Central Powers have decided upon an offensive campaign in practically all of the theatres of war.

MUCH ANXIETY IS AROUSED

Thirty Thousand Carranza Troops Within Striking Distance of Border and Americans Are Apprehensive

(Special to The Herald)

El Paso, May 29.—Reports from the interior of Chihuahua that 30,000 Carranza troops are now within easy striking distance of the border have aroused some apprehension here. Gen. Ohlson, the minister of war in the de facto government of Mexico, has concentrated a large amount of field artillery at Chihuahua City. This move is regarded as significant, as it is said that artillery would be of no use in retort.

patrol work nor in the pursuit of Villa. The diplomatic negotiations between Mexico and the United States, which temporarily halted the search for Villa by the United States troops, has given the bandit an opportunity to select a new hiding place and the task of the American forces has been increased in consequence. Villa is reported to have secured a number of recruits and now has a formidable band in his mountain

FILIBUSTER IS SET BACK

Senate Adopts Amendment
Creating a River Regulation Commission.

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, May 29.—The filibuster against the $13,000,000 Rivers and Harbors bill was set back today when the senate voted down Senator Husting's motion to reconvene the measure, 37 to 41. By a rising vote the senate adopted Senator Newland's amendment creating a river regulation commission to supervise rivers and harbors expenditures designed to abolish the 'pork barrel'.

The senate rejected by a vote of 21 to 37 Senator Taggart's amendment to prevent the expenditure of any part of the $13,000,000 until the secretary of war definitely declared it necessary to promote interstate or foreign commerce.

CRITICIZES WILSON'S VIEWS

London Evening Standard
Comments Upon President's Speech Before Peace League.

(Special to The Herald)

London, May 29.—"President Wilson talks of peace as a small boy might speculate on an apple on the top-most bough of a tree," says the Evening Standard on commenting on the utterances of the American executive. "Congress is asked to declare that it views with apprehension an inconclusive peace. Not even from President Wilson will the Allies accept such a peace."

The Paris press states that no international importance is to be attached to President Wilson's speech before the Peace League on Saturday, although it registers a protest against the idea of free seas which would favor Germany.

THREATS MADE AGAINST TROOPS

Mexicans Will Drive U. S.
Soldiers From the Country.

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, May 29.—Prospects of a serious trouble in Mexico increased today following the receipt of dispatches from General Funston, who reported that he had learned from Mexican newspaper sources and from an American returning from the interior of Mexico that General Herrera had threatened to drive the American soldiers out of Mexico if they did not withdraw soon. Gen. Funston reported that he understood Herrera had set July 1 as the date when he will move his forces against Gen. Pershing's command if the latter have not started toward the border.

AMERICAN TEACHER FREED

Miss Silliman Was Held in Germany as a Spy.

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, May 29.—Ambassador Gerard at Berlin today confirmed the release of Miss Mary Silliman, American teacher in a Constantinople school, who had been held in Germany on a charge of espionage. In a dispatch to the State Department, Ambassador Gerard merely said that Miss Silliman had been released and put across the border. She was on her way to America when arrested in Berlin.

NOTE TO U. S. LOST

Document on Way From Mexico by Special Messenger
Mysteriously Disappears.

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, May 29.—Whereabouts of the latest note from Carranza, reported on the way to Washington by a special messenger became a mystery today.

Manuel Mendez reported to be the special messenger into whose care the first chief of the Mexican government entrusted the document, reached here at noon. Immediately he denied he was the bearer of any communication whatever. He declared he had been en route to New York and reading in an El Paso newspaper that he had been entrusted with an emphatic demand from General Carranza for the immediate withdrawal of the American punitive expedition from Mexico, he had come to Washington to consult Ambassador designate Arredondo. The ambassador designate declined to discuss the matter at all. He said he knew nothing about the note and had not received any word from Mexico City of any sort which dealt with such a situation.

PROMINENT R. R. MAGNATE DEAD

James J. Hill of St. Paul Had a Long and Envious Career as Builder of Railroads

St. Paul, Minn., May 29.—James J. Hill, eminent railroad builder and financier, died at his home here today at 9:30 o'clock. Mr. Hill had been ill for about ten days. Unprecedented efforts to save his life had been made by a large coterie of specialists, rushed here several days ago from Rochester, Minn., and New York.

Members of the immediate family, together with the surgical and medical staff, gathered in St. Paul during the last five days, kept in almost constant touch with Mr. Hill's bedside, while a number of business associates were on hand much of the day.

Shortly after 1 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Gibbons, vicar general of the St. Paul archdiocese and pastor of the St. Paul cathedral, hurried from the great cathedral edifice, where he had been saying mass, to the Hill mansion, just a square up Summit avenue.

At this time it was reported that Mr. Hill had suffered a slight sinking spell, and that members of the family had been called to the sick room.

Throughout the day men prominent in railroad, business and professional circles, called at the big brownstone house, perched on the top of Summit avenue hill side, overlooking a great curving sweep of the Mississippi Valley. All came away grave, uncommunicative.

Practically all the members of the financier's immediate family were at the bedside when he died. The immediate cause of Mr. Hill's death was an abscess which formed on the posterior part of his thigh some three days ago and despite treatment of famous physicians he steadily became worse. The infection it is said had spread to below his knee before death came. He suffered intensely and had periods of unconsciousness during the past few days. Physicians practically gave up hope for his recovery when he failed to rally after the operation. His advanced age, 78, and the intense pain which he suffered from the operation on his thigh had so weakened his general constitution that he was not able to withstand the strain.

GERMAN ATTACKS ARE REPULSED

Big German Guns Keep Up
Violent Cannade on Fort Vaux.

(Special to The Herald)

Paris, May 29.—Two attacks were delivered by the Germans against the French position in Corbeaux wood, northwest of Verdun last night, but both were repulsed, it was announced today by the war office. East of the Meuse the Germans concentrated their artillery fire against Fort Vaux. Throughout all of Sunday and all night long the big guns were hammering away at the French positions at Fort Vaux. The French guns replied and the artillery duel developed into one of the utmost violence.

FAIL TO RETAKE VILLAGE

(Special to The Herald)

Berlin, via Sayville, May 29.—Further attempts by the French to recapture the village of Cumieres from the Germans have been repulsed. Two attacks were delivered against the village Sunday night by the French but they broke down under the fire of the Germans. A great artillery duel is in progress all along the Verdun front. The big guns were busy all day long.

Commencing with the matinee today the photograph part of the program will be changed on Monday and Tuesday and a special three part feature subject will be added at each change of the bill.

The Thomas Trio, a trio of comedy gymnasts will create an unusual riot of fun and frolic with their novelty acrobatic stunts. ## UNITARIANS TO FIGHT

Billy Sunday's Boston Visit Opposed by Unitarians

Boston, May 29.—An organized attack on the Billy Sunday campaign in Boston will be made by Unitarian women when the Sunday campaign opens in this city in October. It is announced that a larger supply of Unitarian literature will be prepared for distribution than has been issued in any city in the country ever visited by Sunday. The Unitarian women declare, however, that "they have no quarrel with Sunday except as regards his attack on the Unitarian faith."

Mrs. Mary B. Davis, corresponding secretary of the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, opened the campaign here to "Look Out for Sunday." She said: "I would like to see carloads of Unitarian literature put into the hands of the people of Boston this fall. There will be a very large quantity of it. Statements made by Sunday about Unitarians are based only on the ignorance of the faith. The statements he made in Pennsylvania and New Jersey resulted in large additions to the Unitarian churches. Since he spoke in Paterson and Trenton, Unitarian churches and societies have been formed in those cities where there had been none before."

Governor Samuel W. McCall has cleaned up practically all of the bills upon his desk for executive approval. Among the big measures that received the approval of the governor are the following: The income tax bill. The bill to change the rule of taxation on legacies and successions. The bill providing for the reorganization of the nonpartisan and councillor districts, and the reappointment of representatives to the general court among the several counties. Two resolves providing for an investigation by the Public Service Commission of freight delays in Boston and an investigation by the state commission of the question of allowing the use of the "L" tracks on Atlantic avenue for the transporting of railroad supplies.

An appeal by the American fund for French wounded for one thousand handkerchiefs, made at a meeting at the Copley Plaza, has met with a quick response, three thousand having already been contributed. The girls at Dana Hall, Wesley, donated money enough to buy about 1450. Many towels, also needed, have come from other sources. The depot in Paris has sent a request here for thousands of absorbent cotton drapes, pads and yard long for old cotton linen and cotton, not cut up, but just as it is; gauze sponges, three and six inch bandages, socks, shirts, pajamas and surgical shirts.

Rev. Dr. A. A. Berie, denounced propaganda, condemned munition makers, the army plate "trust" and the "breadcloth" State street and wall street crowd for their lack of humanity and their grip on the government of the United States, at a meeting of the Free Religious Association of America, the closing session of Unitarian's Anniversary week in this city. He declared that he does not care what form the final federation of the world will take if there is no killing in it. International peace, however, is not to be regarded as something nice in the great distant future, to be dreamed about, but not to handle, for there is a near approach to it. There is something that can be done at present. He showed the progress of a world munition trust. This gigantic and horrible monster he linked with the big bankers of today.

Base Ball Games

On Saturday afternoon at the playgrounds diamond the Portsmouth High School defeated the U. S. S. Montana, winning an easy game 11 to 4. Hodgdon pitched good ball for the high school and held his opponents to scattered hits with the exception of the second inning when they made three of the four runs. Mulholland started with his stick work. The score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
U. S. S.	3	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	11	9	2
Montana	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	0	8

Batteries, Hodgdon and Smith, Levine and Woods, Holliday and Hanlon.

New Hampshire State College defeated Connecticut Agricultural College at Durham in their annual game on Saturday, winning the game in the tenth inning, 7 to 5. Two Portsmouth athletes figured in the game, Bill Shuttleworth and Ralph Brackett, as pitcher and catcher, respectively. Ralph made three of the runs and two of the nine hits and Shuttleworth crossed the pan with another of the runs. The score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
N. H.	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	2	1	7
Conn.	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	5

Batteries, Shuttleworth, Hamilton and Brackett; Reeve, Fellows and Salisbury.

It was New Hampshire's day for Phillips Exeter defeated the freshman class team of Holy Cross at Exeter, winning by the score of 9 to 3. Holy Cross used two pitchers but the New Hampshire youngsters out-hit their opponents, getting 10 to 5. The score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Exeter	3	0	0	4	0	2	0	0	0	9

Batteries, Gorkley, Devitts and White; Gargner, McCauley and Daniels.

But just to be contrary, Dartmouth had to lose to Brown, 6 to 0; the game being played at Providence. Brown out-hit the Green batters two to one, making 5 hits to the visitors 4. The score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Brown	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	6

Batteries, Healey and Penning; Keddie and Murphy.

Although this isn't sport in the accepted sense of the word, a pretty good sport writer is its author. This appears to be the opinion of George E. Phair, of the Boston American, of the number of the citizens yelling for preparedness. It explains itself.

"Hoory! Hoory! Hoory!" he cried, waving a flag. "I am for preparedness! I am going to march in the Preparedness Parade. The Army and Navy Forever; Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue."

"That is a noble sentiment," said an ancient stranger with an empty coat-sleeve and a little bronze button in his lapel. "Who?" If I may ask, "Is your Congressman?"

"You can search me. But what's that got to do with it? Hoory! Hoory! Hoory!"

Wednesday evening instead of on Tuesday.

The Misses Zelle and Mary Cole of Portsmouth have been visiting their parents in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Thompson have gone to Seaboard, Me., for the summer.

Miss Hazen West won the quilt made by the Ladies Aid Society, by securing the largest number of names for it.

Burbank Severance of Merrimack, Mass., was a recent visitor in town.

Paul W. Goodhue spent two days last week at Newcastle.

Northampton Grange furnished the program at the Grange meeting Tuesday night and State Master Wesley Adams was present. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pearson.

"Do you vote?"

"Who? Me? No! They're all crooks. What's the use of me wasting my time to vote? Hoory! Hoory! Hoory!"

"But you are in favor of compulsory military service, are you not?"

"Whaddayamean? Have my son join the army and make him out of me? They'll fight when the time comes and not before. Ain't I spending $18 in gold cash to decorate my car and taking a day off and neglecting my business to ride in the Preparedness Parade? And don't I stand up every time the orchestra plays 'The Star Spangled Banner'?"

If that ain't patriotism I'd like to know what is. The Army and Navy Forever; Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue! Hoory! Hoory! Hoory!"

There are a number of fans looking for another opportunity to see Joe Stutz and Eddie Flynn of Peabody get together again. Flynn thinks that the sailor from the Montana is a pretty tough man and if Stutz can get down to weight, or a little nearer to weight, he may consent to have him once more before the summer season closes the boxing. About Flynn, who will be seen here again in action against Ty Goodwin of Boston one week from tonight, he is admitted by most of the fight followers to be the toughest fighter in the business of his weight. His manager is having pretty hard work to match him with the good ones, but because he isn't good enough to meet them, but because he is too good. He is so good, in fact, that he has to meet men weightless from eight to twelve pounds more than he does.

Bill Dow, matchmaker for the Rockingham A. C. is in receipt of a letter from the manager of Joe Connolly, Peabody. Mr. Manager says that he will allow Joe to meet any New Englander of his weight before the Rockingham A. C. barring Eddie Flynn. That looks as though some of them are afraid of the Peabody scrapper.

This evening the Y. M. C. A. and the U. S. M. C. will face each other in their first meeting of the 1915 Sunset League season. It should be a fast game and the chances of each team are about even. The Y. M. C. A. have won one and lost two of their three games; defeating the P. A. C. for their only win.

The Marines have taken no games, but have held to fast K. of C. in a tie and the Knights defeated the Y. M. C. A. 4 to 3 in the third game of the season. Look out for some fast action.

HOSPITAL SHIP IS ORDERED TO HAITIEN PORT

ILLNESS AMONG MARINES AT CAPE HAITIEN BRING A CALL FOR THE SOLACE.

Newport, R. I., Saturday.—The hospital ship Solace left here tonight for Cape Haitien, Hayti. Illness among the marines stationed there under the command of Rear Admiral William B. Caperton was the cause of the order received from the Navy Department this afternoon for the hospital ship to steam. Black water fever seems to be the disease most prevalent, and the hospital facilities on the island are not adequate. Medical Inspector R. M. Kennedy is in command, and the Solace will make the best time possible in reaching her destination.

The supply ship Celtic, which is at the Boston navy yard, will steam for Cape Haitien in a few days to relieve the Celtic.

A new maneuver in the history of the navy is to take place this summer when the destroyer flotilla of the Atlantic fleet will call at various ports along the coast from New York to Eastport, Me. This maneuver, which will take in more than seventy ports, will be made for the benefit of officers on board the destroyers, who will study the navigation necessary for entrance to any of the harbors. The battle ship Vermont arrived here today, and with the Minnesota, the South Carolina and the Nebraska they will remain over Memorial Day.

The Tennessee With Marine Reinforcements at Santo Domingo.

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Saturday.—The United States cruiser Tennessee arrived here today from Norfolk with several hundred marines to reinforce the American forces engaged in policing the republic. The transport Frigate, which landed marines during the disorders following the withdrawal of President Jimenez, steamed today for northern ports.

THE BETTER THE HOPS THE BETTER THE BEER FLAVOR

ANHEUSER-BUSCH have by many thousands of pounds more Saazer Hops in their giant storage houses than has any other brewery in Europe or America. Before the war our President, while abroad on his annual hop-buying pilgrimage, bought 775,000 pounds (1550 bales) of Bohemia's very finest Saazer Hops. To this add the 500,000 pounds we had on hand, and you will see that we can guarantee our millions of patrons that BUDWEISER will continue, as always, to have the same exclusive Saazer Hop flavor which has helped its sales to exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL MEETING SHOWS PROSPEROUS CONDITION

Organization is Sound Financially and is Doing Excellent Work in the City—Secretary's Report Pleases Directors

At the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held last week the reports of the secretary and treasurer show the Portsmouth organization to be in a fine and prosperous condition. The meeting elected Julius M. Dutton, George H. Chadwick, J. True Davis, Edward L. Peterson, and Horace P. Montgomery to the board of directors for three years.

The report of the general secretary, Donald A. McNeel, follows:

"Mr. President, Officers, Directors and Members of the Young Men's Christian Association of Portsmouth, N. H.:

"We have good reasons tonight for much rejoicing. It is a great pleasure to be able to report that we have closed our books with all bills paid, to be able to report that we have One month ago tonight we needed more than $800 to meet our accounts and the outlook was none too promising. An appeal was sent out through the mail to a number of our public spirited citizens and the response was most gratifying. Several of our Directors made personal calls on some of our business men and they succeeded in adding a goodly sum to that received through the mails. So that tonight we can look ahead with clearer vision to the work before us.

"Notwithstanding the great handicap under which we labored the past year the Association was able to reach a great many men and boys through its various activities. Owing to the condition of the finances during the fall and early winter months we were forced to labor single handed and were not able to carry on the type of work we would like to have done. Our efforts were placed largely in the Social and Physical departments, but through these a strong religious tone permeated and those in close touch with the men and boys who frequented the building during the year have remarked on the change for the better in a large number of these men and boys.

"A City Basketball League composed of six teams was a good feature and was a means of helping a great many men both physically and morally. The High School class Basketball was conducted as usual, but the interest there was not quite so keen as formerly owing no doubt to the fact that there was a greater difference in basketball ability between the classes and they were not so evenly matched as in former years. The Juniors had a very successful Basketball team and are now trying their skill at Baseball.

"The reading room has been well patronized by young and old and was a source of profit and enjoyment to all. An orchestra was organized early in January and met weekly until we lost our leader. We will no doubt be able to take this feature up again in the fall.

"Undoubtedly, the biggest thing of the year was the 'Father and Son Dinner' served by our Auxiliary on March 21 to 150 boys and their fathers. The good accomplished cannot be estimated but it will have a lasting influence over not only those who attended, but over the entire Association as well. A Scout Troop is being organized and we hope to be in full working order very shortly. Arrangements are under way for conducting a summer camp.

"We owe much to our Woman's Auxiliary for their faithful and loyal support during the year.

"We would also express our thanks to the local Press for the assistance given us in making public the various activities of the year."

The report of Lewis E. Staples, treasurer of the Board of Trustees, was as follows:

Total earnings for year .....$551.37

Total expenses for year .....$551.37

"We are glad to report that the foundation has been laid for a permanent fund. Mrs. Martha J. Kimball has shown her devotion to the Association by presenting $5,000 as a nucleus for a 'Permanent Fund' the income to be used for the expenses of the Association.

"It is extremely gratifying to us, and also eminently fitting, that the first gift for permanent support of this Association should come from the one who was nearest to our late honored President Edward P. Kimball, and who stood with him in the work through all the years in which he led this organization and made possible this fine building which we now occupy.

"It is also a great pleasure to report that Dr. Robert O. Treadwell remembered this Association in his will, and that the Executors have paid the legacy of $1,000. This amount is also added to the Permanent Fund, and will be known as the Robert O. Treadwell Fund.

"Thus from those who have been interested in this Association from the start, and from others from whom we are not aware, comes great encouragement and cheer. We can thank God and take courage, and when the weary days come and it seems hard to elicit the sympathy and financial support of those whom we feel should help, we will hark back to this time and the cheer it brings, and believing that there are other gifts coming in just this way—persevere until we shall see a permanent fund big enough to care for the work as it could and should be done."

Report of Treasurer J. M. McNeel showed:

Total receipts .....$3,342.09
Total expenditure .....$3,234.87

Balance .....$7.22

PARLEY WILL NOT TOUCH UPON WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS

Washington, D. C., Saturday.—The administration's determination not to consider any proposal for immediate withdrawal of the American expeditionary force in Mexico was further emphasized today when officials made it clear that the question of withdrawal would not be discussed in any form at the conference to be held by General Pershing, commander of the expedition and General Gaviria, Carranza's commander, in Chihuahua.

While details of the conference were being worked out, the State Department heard unofficially today that even should General Carranza's forthcoming note demand immediate withdrawal, he would not insist to the point of an armed effort to expel the American troops, but would be satisfied with some arrangement for gradual retirement as de facto armies assume control of the bandit-ridden territory south of the border.

Official information regarding the contents of the Carranza communication still was lacking but there would be little surprise here if it made a peremptory demand for withdrawal. Its phraseology officials expect, will be dictated largely by the domestic political situation in Mexico, where continued presence of the American troops is said to have caused much unrest. Information reaching the State Department today unofficially, however, renewed confidence that the negotiations would result in a co-operative agreement following in some degree the understanding reached by General Scott and General Obregon in the border conferences.

Note Expected Today

Manuel Mendez, attached to Carranza's Foreign Office, will arrive here on Monday with the note, and it probably will be presented Monday or Tuesday by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate. A state department despatch today reported that Mendez passed through Eagle Pass, Texas, yesterday.

Charles A. Douglas, formerly counsel for Carranza here, conferred with Frank L. Polk, counselor of the State Department, today and told him of many conferences he had with General Carranza during his recent trip to Mexico City. He is said to have given the counselor much confidential information about the attitude of the de facto officials.

"General Obregon and many other officials are satisfied that Villa is dead," said Mr. Douglas. "I too, am of that opinion. He has not been seen either by Mexican or American soldiers for more than two months. It is not his nature to stay in seclusion so long."

While the note has not been considered up to the time he left Mexico City, Mr. Douglas said much pressure was being brought upon Carranza by various interests to demand withdrawal of the American forces.

An urgent deficiency appropriation of $3,939,250 to meet obligations coming due on the border and in Mexico was asked of Congress today by Secretary Baker. Of that amount $2,297,975 is for transportation of the army and its supplies and $1,641,275 for many horses, including those for the border states militia.

Carranza Action Unconfirmed

The State and War Departments were without confirmation today of renewed border reports that large numbers of Carranza troops were moving northward. If any important movements were in progress, officials said, Consul Stillman probably would have reported.

Consul Letcher, formerly stationed at Chihuahua City, will not leave Washington for the present. It was said today he was being considered for a different position. Consul Schmitz, of Aguas Calientes, among the six Consuls ordered to the border to confer with United States military leaders, has gone to New Orleans for a fortnight, and none of the other Consuls will come to Washington.

The State Department received word today of renewed activity of Zapata outlaws about Mexico City. Puebla, a railroad junction, was raided and ten Mexicans killed. Stores were looted, but no Americans were endangered. The bandits were driven off.

It was learned that the State Department is not issuing passports to Americans to travel to Mexico City and other interior Mexican points. The Carranza government requires that Americans and other foreigners have passports because of disturbed conditions. Denial of passports, it was stated, is in conformity with the general policy of the administration of discouraging Americans from entering Mexico and urging those now there to leave.

The formal order directing trial by court martial on June 1 at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, of 116 members of the Texas National Guard who fanned to present themselves to be mustered in to the federal service, was forwarded today to General Funston. Colonel Edward A. Miller, Third Field Artillery, is designated as president of the court and Major Blanton Winship, U. S. A., judge advocate.

The law requires that a majority of the members of the court be national guardsmen, and the following officers of the Texas guard, now in federal service, were designated:—

Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Muehert, Major N. Lapowski, Major Hobman Taylor, Major A. H. Sholars, Major L. E. Hill, Captain H. W. Kinard and Captain W. E. Lake.

In addition the following regular officers will sit:—Colonel Jacob G. Caldwell, Major Harry H. Bandholtz, Captain W. L. Reed and Captain George C. Shaw.

Specifications of the charges prepared by Judge Advocate General Crowder, accompanied the order.

Memorial Day.

The passage of another year is marked by the arrival of Memorial day, whose observance should appeal strongly to all classes of our citizens, old and young. This day was set apart shortly after the close of the Civil war as an occasion on which to pay special honors to those who fell in the service of the Union, and to share with their surviving comrades the privilege of paying honors so richly deserved.

The program this year will be essentially the same as in the years that are gone. The exercises everywhere will be under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, an organization entitled to the respect and veneration of every American citizen. Since its formation it has done a vast amount of good work among the survivors of the war of the rebellion and has assumed many burdens which otherwise would have fallen upon the public. Steadily and unostentatiously the veterans have worked among their comrades in the interest of their physical, moral and civic welfare, and their record of accomplishment is a high honor to them and a source of pride to the country.

In view of what these men have done in war and in peace it is eminently fitting that the public should join with them in the observance of a day which to the old soldiers means more than any other day in the year. The great majority of those who fought for liberty and union have long since answered the final roll call, and those remaining should not be allowed to stand alone as they gather in the resting places of the dead to pay honors to services gallantly performed and to strew flowers upon the graves in which heroes sleep. Fit words of appreciation will be spoken, appropriate music will be rendered and there will be brought to the minds of all listeners things which it will not do to forget.

Memorial day is a holiday, and at this distance from the agony that brought it into being it is inevitable that many, especially those of the younger generation, should regard it much as they do any other holiday. Under present conditions sports and pastimes on this day are proper to a certain extent, but these should not be allowed to detract from or interfere with the proper observance of the day, which is purely an American institution deserving the attention of every patriotic American.

Let the thinning ranks of the veterans as they move to the last resting places of their departed comrades to pay their tribute of love and respect be impressed by the fact that they do not stand alone in this appropriate and beautiful service.

The two men who had a fight the other day on the lawn of the Louisiana state capitol, surrounded by a group of legislators who made no effort to stop the disgraceful affair, have been fined by the city court. The judge in imposing the sentences said: "Personally I approve of this method of settling a difficulty between gentlemen, but it is against the law and will have to fine you." As this paper remarked in a previous comment on the occurrence, there appears to be room for a little more civilization down in that part of the country.

When people read of a man being killed and his wife being seriously injured in a highway casualty they feel that they know the rest of the story whether they read the remainder of the account or not. In this conclusion they are usually right, though not always. In an eastern Massachusetts town there was such a happening the other day, caused by a horse becoming unmanageable and running away. And an automobile was not even responsible for the frightening of the horse.

A contemporary in commenting upon the necessity of play says: "A man needs to be shaken up occasionally. He needs to have his heart beat faster and his face flushed at times. He needs often to breathe deeply and to exert himself to the utmost." It would be interesting to know whether these sage remarks were based upon experience or theory.

Reports from London are to the effect that Lloyd George has been designated to "run" Ireland. And, to judge from recent happenings, he will find it quite an institution to run.

It is to be noticed that "lapping" in New York city is followed by more or less hard rapping. The mayor and some of the clergymen of the city have locked horns in dead earnest.

A Maine woman claims to have discovered a way to catch woodchucks with fly paper. But a good rifle is still the best implement with which to swat the woodchuck.

May the weather on Memorial day be all that it should be.

COMMISSION ON NEW NAVY YARDS

Will Also Give Opinion Relative to Abolishing Any Existing Yards.

The house naval committee recommends the adoption of a provision whereby the President is authorized to appoint a commission of five officers on the active list of the navy, not below the rank of commander, to investigate and report at the beginning of the next regular session of congress, if possible or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, as to the necessity, desirability and advisability of establishing an additional navy yard or naval station on the Pacific coast of the United States. The same commission is directed to report on the necessity, desirability of establishing an additional navy yard or naval station on the Atlantic coast south of Cape Hatteras or on the United States coast of the Gulf of Mexico or in the Caribbean Sea. The same commission is also directed to report on the necessity, desirability, and advisability of abolishing any existing navy yards or stations. This recommendation is made with a view to obtaining an expert opinion of experienced naval officers as to whether or not the facilities for docking and repairing the fleet on the Pacific coast are adequate and if not, to select a site and report to congress. If the navy is to protect both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, it may be necessary to increase the docking and repairing facilities for the fleet when it visits the Pacific coast.

The consensus of expert naval opinion is expressed before the committee in its hearings seems to be that in case of a naval engagement between the United States and a foreign foe the most profitable theatre of war would be the Caribbean Sea, and the committee deems it important that congress should be advised as to whether or not the docking and repair facilities in the territories south of Hatteras, Gulf of Mexico, and the Caribbean are sufficient to provide proper repair bases for the U. S. fleet. The committee also deems it proper to obtain the opinion of the same board relative to the abolishing of any existing navy yards, wherever situated. In all recommendations made by this commission, it is directed to state the reason for such recommendation in detail and that the cost connected with any recommendation should likewise be limited.

PEOPLE AND THINGS

The national meeting of the Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. shows a very successful year. This institution cares most efficiently for the young men of the community. It costs money to support the institution and it is hoped that every citizen will take an interest in doing what is possible to help it. If your boy is not a member, have him join. He will obtain good healthful exercises there.

A trip along the coast from Olinette's Point to Little Bear's Head Saturday afternoon showed an array of painters and carpenters at work. Five new cottages are now under construction and practically two-thirds of the cottages are being painted or repaired. This part of the coast line is quite an institution for Portsmouth. Much of the labor and material comes from this city. Portsmouth merchants should keep constantly in touch with them.

This selection of the town of Rye are having the road to the Westworth put in repair. From the quality of the material being hauled there on Saturday it does not appear to be very permanent. Some good heavy gravel is what is needed on this road, with a top dressing of oil.

From reliable sources it is learned that the defects in the fire alarm system are due to wear, improper installation, and other defects, and are attributable to the Superintendent of the fire alarm. In fact, one of the parties interested in the inspection made that statement today.

George A. Wood has just returned from a three day session of the Peace and Preparedness League meeting in Washington which was presided over by former President William H. Taft. Over $300,000 was pledged at the meeting. It was a patriotic meeting. Politics for the first time was set aside.

At one of the local Sunday schools during a brief intermission someone suggested that the members, who were all high-school boys, take a straw vote for President. The result was 2 for Roosevelt and 2 for Hughes. It appears that about this ratio prevails at all colleges and schools in the country.

The fires at the Norfolk and New York navy yards was regretted by every employee at the local navy yard and we are glad that this yard can boast these yards with equipment. Portsmouth is interested in the success of Norfolk and New York, and

CURRENT OPINION

Who are the native Americans who have for one hundred years periodically grown hysterical about putting up the bars to protect themselves against alien blood and then opening wide the gates to welcome immigration to an enlarged field of labor in this melting pot of the world, which has for three hundred years been pouring from its crucible a new composite American to stand as a type both like and unlike those of the older civilization from which the virile blood of America has been drawn?

I am proud of this country. I love this country. I am glad to have been born in this, or perhaps I should say a former, generation.

All I desire to say is that I have this faith: I believe that we will continue to grow stronger and stronger; that we will continue to live under the constitution which guarantees property, life, freedom in religious opinion, legislation that will cover the rich and the poor, the high and the low, every one that we have within our borders, be he alien or native born, like the grace of God.

I believe that under it we will make our laws strong enough to restrain the strongest and to protect the weakest and that for more centuries than I can speak of now this republic will continue to grow and grow, continuing to retain, as it ought, our privileges and our civilization.—By Representative Joseph G. Cannon, Ex-Speaker.

hopes the men at these yards are interested in the prosperity of the Portsmouth yard.

A gentleman in a position to know informs this paper that there are one hundred members of the I. W. W. in this city and that Mr. Joseph Ritor has attended two meetings here during the past three months. Thus far the meetings have been conducted very quietly with no disturbance.

Some twenty torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers are to visit Portsmouth harbor sometime during the summer. It is part of the maneuvers of the preparedness. It is also understood that the Naval Academy squadron will make a stop here that the midshipmen may inspect the construction of the submarine.

The Manchester Union issued a very creditable prosperity edition this morning, showing in picture and story many of New Hampshire's industries that have been made successful and possible by protection offered by the Republican party. In connection with the story there are illustrations of many of the big men of the United States that have assisted in this work. This interesting issue should be read by every citizen in the state.

The date for the Portsmouth Fair as announced is Sept. 3, 4 and 5, and the committees are much alive in the interest of this year's attractions.

PEOPLES' OPINION

Parochial School Disappointed.
Editor—If possible I would like to obtain some information through your paper as to the reason why the scholars of the parochial school were not extended an invitation to participate in the parade of Decoration day. It appears to me that this cannot be an oversight as the children of this school have always showed their patriotism on this day and have always been counted upon to march with the other schools. As I understand, the children of this school have been ready for the call to join the ranks, but the call is yet to come. I believe an explanation is due from some source and I should like very much to hear what it is.

trimmer or a lawn-roller? The Advertising News in this newspaper quotes these very necessary garden tools at a reasonable price. Do you read the ad? Does this talk remind you of the tough cutting last summer with that antiquated grass-chewer of yours? But a lawn-mower.

Making Tommy Attractive.

Ethel, the 12-year-old daughter of a family that resides in an uptown apartment house, recently said to her mother:
"Mother, I wish you'd wash Tommy's face."
Now, Tommy was the son of the man whose apartment adjoined theirs, so mother was both alarmed and astonished.
"The idea!" she exclaimed. "Why, he's a neighbor's child! I have nothing to do with him."
"But I have," explained Ethel. "We've become engaged and I want to kiss him."—Youth's Companion.

The local tax rate took quite a jump this year.

SMALLER MEN MAY NOW JOIN

Shorter and Lighter Candidates Will Be Considered for Regular Army.

Important changes have been made in the requirements for accepting applicants in the U. S. Army.

Up to this time, candidates were considered under-weight if they did not tip the scales at 120 pounds. This has now been lowered to 115 pounds.

Men were disqualified as undersized, unless they measured five feet four inches in height. Hereafter, the limit will be five feet three inches.

These reductions, it is made plain, are merely for the purpose of allowing acceptance of applications at the recruiting point, and subject to approval by the adjutant general's office in Washington.

Unofficially, however, it is believed the discouraging number of enlistments secured throughout the country since the present move to enlarge the standing army was inaugurated some months ago, is the primary reason for the changes.

STARTED ON JOY RIDE

End Came Too Quickly for Kittery Young Men.

Two well-known Kittery young men took a trip, or at least started on one, which they probably will not forget for some time to come. Saturday evening one of the pair asked a youngster if he might borrow his bicycle, saying that he was only going to take a short ride up the street. Permission was granted and the fellow started. At the same time the second fellow gave another lad a dime for the use of his wheel for the evening. Together the pair started off on a ride on Post road. After they had gone a short distance the idea came into their heads to take a trip worth while, and they set Portland as their goal, and immediately started on their journey, intending to return to Kittery Sunday.

Later in the evening when the couple failed to return the wheels borrowed, the young owners suspected something was wrong, and their fathers took the matter up. The police authorities in the surrounding towns were notified, and as a result the cyclists were stopped when they reached Kennebunk and they were given a certain length of time to return to Kittery. They were allowed to remain in Kennebunk over night, returning home early Sunday morning. But they did not get off so very easily for they were charged for punctured tires, for auto hire by the Kennebunk police, and for telephone tolls, an amount which reached several dollars.

TO FORM BOYS' BICYCLE CLUBS

Fisk Rubber Company Appoints Man to Take Charge of Associations.

Bicycle riding has increased to such an extent during the past two years that the prediction of a million new bicycles this season bids fair to come true.

Bicycles are lighter, cheaper and better than when the fathers of the present generation of youngsters made their weekly club runs on the old heavy "safety" over rough, uneven roads.

Already "bike" clubs are being formed all over the country and a revival of weekly club rides will be seen on all of our automobile roads this season.

The Fisk Rubber Company of Chicago, Ill., is taking special interest in boys clubs. It has appointed a club chief which is sending instruction books on forming clubs, as well as banners, arm bands and other paraphernalia without charge to boys.

CANADA IS SUSPICIOUS.

Moving picture camera men have their troubles sometimes, especially in connection with war work. The experience of an accredited operator for a big local film concern while taking pictures in the Val Cartier training camp in Canada is regarded as rather unusual even for a movie man. Through no fault of his own, but the indiscretion of the manager of his home office, he was banished from the field of operations where he had been getting good material.

Although this man had something of a German name he had the proper credentials and the Canadian military authorities gave him permission to take movies of the camps, maneuvers, reviews, etc. All went well until he received the following telegram from his "editor":

"When does next ship sail for England? how many troops will she carry?"

The text of the message connected with the name of the operator aroused suspicion in the minds of the military commanders. On that day the movie man was merely grinding out film when he was surrounded by a squad of soldiers with fixed bayonets. Without any particular explanation the operator and his outfit were hustled to the railroad, put on a train and rushed across the border.

"Very careless of him to send me that message," thought the movie man. But he will never get back on the Val Cartier military field.—New York Sun.

NAVY BOARD IS NAMED TO MEET OIL CRISIS

Washington, May 28.—The exposure of the schemes of private interests to obtain, through legislation now pending in the Senate, control of the reserve oil supply of the navy is certain to result in a serious controversy when the measure comes up for discussion in the Senate, and if the Wilson administration can be induced to come out flatly against the proposal, which seems likely, there is good reason to believe that it will be defeated.

Senator Henry L. Myers, of Montana, democratic chairman of the Committee on Public Lands, which has favorably reported the measure, in the Senate stated Saturday that the Standing Committee had arranged to give the bill the right of way in the Senate after the Rivers and Harbors "park" bill, and the Agricultural and Post-office Appropriation bills have been disposed of. That means that it will be after the national political conventions before the measure can be considered in the Senate.

In the meantime the navy is getting busy. Following consideration of the measure by the Cabinet, it was announced this afternoon that a special oil board has been appointed by the Navy Department to consider the whole question of the oil supply of the navy in connection with the building policy. Unless the Navy Department can be assured of an adequate oil supply for the future, the more efficient oil burning type of war vessels will have to be abandoned.

Experts on New Board.

The members of this Special Oil Board are Admiral John D. Edwards, U. S. N., retired, the navy's foremost oil expert, Lieutenant Commander John Halligan, Jr., and Lieutenant Commander James O. Richardson.

The members of the Senate Committee on Public Lands, who are nearly all western men, are likely for the most part to stand by their report, unless it can be demonstrated clearly to them by President Wilson that by so doing they are injuring the nation in a vital manner.

Senators and Representatives who are interested in the development of lands in question unless they were actually working, leading to the discovery of oil and gas on a certain day.

"We did not believe in acting upon this bill that such was the interest and purpose of Congress in enacting the Pickett law, and this bill simply corrects the situation and does, we believe, what Congress originally intended should be done.

"No one wishes our navy to be deprived of fuel, and I do not believe that in doing what seems to be justice to those who in good faith and with a right to do so entered these lands, did work and made discoveries, we are depriving the navy of its rights."

APPOINTMENTS MADE Governor and Council Busy With Two Days' Session.

Governor Spaulding and the five members of the executive council got together in their rooms at the state house on Thursday and Friday last, and cleaned up a large amount of the month's business that had accumulated.

Willis McDuffee of Rochester having declined his re-appointment as trustee of the New Hampshire State college, the place was filled by the appointment of Roy D. Hunter, president of the Sullivan County Farmers' Association, owner of the Copake Farm, Claremont, and son-in-law of Hon. J. Duncan Upham.

George H. Brown of Manchester and Concord was appointed to succeed himself on the state board of opportunity. The vacancy on the Manchester police commission caused by the death of Almus W. Morse was filled by the appointment of Deputy Sheriff Thomas J. Donnelly; and Portland J. Gagnon was named as police commissioner of Somersworth in place of Henry A. King resigned, because of removal from the city.

Michael F. Connolly of Manchester was appointed to become the representative of labor on the board of arbitration and conciliation, succeeding Francis J. Hurley of the same city when the latter's term expires in July.

George P. Loveland was nominated as special justice of the court at Hamam.

HOW ADVERTISING HELPS THE PUBLIC. D'Arcy Will Tell Advertising Men at Annual Convention.

Philadelphia, May 28.—The value of advertising as a public servant (the manner in which it increases output, speeds up sales and otherwise enables the advertiser to sell goods of equal quality for less than the non-advertiser can sell them) will be one of the subjects kept uppermost in the minds of the thousands of business men who will gather here, June 25 to 30, to attend the annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

Especially will this phase of the subject of advertising come to the front when William C. D'Arcy, of St. Louis, makes his report as chairman of the advertising committee of the Association.

Advertising a Public Benefit.

In practically all of the magazines of the country, in 300 newspapers, in religious publications, farm papers and through other mediums, a great campaign to advertise advertising has been running, and now, Forrest Crissey the magazine writer, has written a booklet, showing just how advertising helps the public, for free distribution.

The advertising club movement is founded upon the knowledge that advertising, skillfully handled, is a public benefit, saving the public's money and time, standardizing qualities, and making buying safer and easier.

PRESIDENT OUTLINES COURSE THIS COUNTRY SHOULD FOLLOW

Washington, D. C., Saturday.—Voting the belief that the world is on the eve of a great consummation which will develop common and lasting peace, President Wilson tonight outlined the course he believed the United States should follow when it comes time to start overtures to end the European War.

Mr. Wilson spoke at a banquet of the American branch of the League to Enforce Peace, at the New Willard Hotel, before an assemblage, whose members included such men as William H. Taft, who is president of the organization.

Outlines Settlement Terms

"I am sure," said the President, "that the people of the United States would wish their government to move along these lines:

"First, such a settlement with regard to their own immediate interests as the belligerents may agree upon. We have nothing material of any kind to ask for ourselves, and are quite aware that we are in no reason or degree parties to the present quarrel. Our interest is only in peace and its future guarantees.

"Second, a universal association of the nations to maintain the inviolate security of the highway of the seas for the common and unobstructed use of all the nations of the world, and to prevent any war begun either contrary to treaty covenants or without warning and full submission of the causes to the opinion of the world—a virtual guarantee of territorial integrity and political independence."

"The fundamentals of a lasting peace President Wilson said, he believed were:

"First, that every people has a right to choose the sovereignty under which they shall live. Like other nations, we have ourselves no doubt once and again offended against that principle when for a little while controlled by selfish passion, as our franker historians have been honorable enough to admit; but it has become more and more our rule of life and action.

"Second, that the small states of the world have a right to enjoy the same respect for their sovereignty and for their territorial integrity that great and powerful nations expect and insist upon.

"And third, that the world has a right to be free from every disturbance of its peace that has its origin in aggression and disregard of the rights of peoples and nations."

Designed for Both Sides

BOAT SWEEP OVER DAM Couple Have Narrow Escape From Drowning at Laconia.

Laconia, May 28.—Charles Lecour, 59 years old who resides at 89 Somers street, and his son, Fred, had a narrow escape from drowning on Sunday afternoon, when the motor of the power boat in which they were navigating the Missisquoi river became stalled and was swept over the dam at Mill street.

Buffeted from rock to rock, the elder Lecour was carried for a long distance down the swiftly flowing river and most of the time he was totally submerged. His son made several heroic attempts to reach the side of his aged father, and when hope had almost gone succumbed in grasping him as they came close to the abutment of a chimney of the picking mill.

By this time the bank of the river was crowded with spectators and Policeman Pickering jumped into the river, assisted Lecour in bringing the old man to the bank. No one expected that life could possibly remain, but the sturdy constitution of Mr. Lecour stood him in good stead, and first aid administration succeeded in bringing his respiratory organs into action. He was hastened to the hospital where it was learned that a complete recovery is expected.

The younger Lecour, who is an expert swimmer, escaped with only a few bruises and cuts from the jagged rocks and floating debris.

The Carnival committee will hold a meeting this week to discuss plans for the preparedness parade on the 4th of July.

HONOR BRITISH SOLDIER DEAD

Memorial Service Held for Those Who Fell in Battle of Concord, 1775.

Concord, Mass., May 28.—A memorial service was held here Sunday by the British Naval and Military Veterans Association of Massachusetts at the graves of the British soldiers who died here in 1775. Just as the British troop entered this town during the revolutionary war were compelled to march in, so the veterans Sunday were forced to arrive here via shanks' mare, the car in which they were riding becoming stalled just outside the town limits.

Escorted by the Lexington Minutemen they assembled in front of the Town Hall and marched down Monument street to the graves where Col. J. R. Smith, president of the association, gave a short address. Other speeches were made by Lieut. Col. J. S. Barrows in behalf of the Sons of the Revolution, Gen. Charles K. Darling of Concord, in behalf of the town and Sergt. Fred S. Wells of the 7th Battalion, first regiment, of British Columbia, who lost his right arm at the battle of Ypres.

MAINE RECOVERS FROM BIG STORM

Auto Roads Being Repaired and Will Be Fit in Short Time.

Slowly but surely southern and western Maine is recovering from the effect of the recent record-breaking five inch downpour of rain according to a bulletin sent out by the Touring Bureau of the Maine Automobile Association. The greatest amount of road damage was caused between Portland and Wells on the Portland-Portland state highway, and on the Maine trunk line of travel, between Portland, Lewiston and Whitcomb via Gray, Danville Junction and North Monmouth. Other serious damage was inflicted in the neighborhood of Poland Springs and in fact all of the country roads outside of the main thoroughfares are in a very bad condition and should not be attempted except in cases of necessity for the next few days.

The feature brought out by the big storm was the remarkable work of the Maine State Highway department's new patrol system inaugurated this year. But for the splendid efficiency of this system and the really heroic work of the patrolmen, damage to Maine's highways would have been almost irreparable and would have resulted in road destruction which would have tied up or at least interfered with traffic for many weeks, causing thousands of dollars worth of damage.

When the rain started the state's patrolmen set to work to save the roads and bridges and for two days and two nights were almost constantly on duty throughout the rain belt and through their efforts scores of bridges were saved and many miles of highway were prevented from being washed away.

Temporary repairs have been completed between Portland and Wells on the Portland-Portland highway, so that only one detour is necessary. This is in the town of Wells where a large section of the state highway was washed away, which will take several days to repair.

The break at Kennebunk is closed in and arrangements undoubtedly will be completed in Southern for traffic to cross the street railway company's bridge while the repairs are being made at this point.

Between Portland and Augusta there are several serious washouts which will take several days to completely repair, notably in the vicinity of Danville Junction and at North Monmouth. The only available route between Portland and Lewiston at the present time is via Brunswick and Lisbon Falls.

Between Portland and Fryeburg the road is in a fair condition with the exception that it is badly washed in the vicinity of Highland Lake and between Naples and Histon. The road is also in bad shape between Portland and Poland Springs and beyond Norway.

Between Wells and Boston the road is in excellent condition by the way of Newburyport, Salem and Lynn. The Newburyport turnpike is not recommended at the present time, owing to its poor condition. The new Federal highway between Portland and Brunswick came through the storm in excellent condition and east of Bath and north of Augusta, Norway and Bridgton there was little damage done. The center of the storm appeared to be in the vicinity of Portland and between that city and Portsmouth.

The Maine State highway department is using every man available and every means possible to bring the roads back into shape at the earliest possible moment, but it will be several days before they can be returned to anything like normal conditions.

SAYS VOTERS MUST BACK LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

Washington, D. C., May 28.—Voters of the United States as a whole, and not simply scholars, must back the proposals of the League to Enforce Peace if they are to be successful, J. Mott Halliwell of Boston told the meeting of the league here today.

He said in part: "The ultimate goal of the American Branch of the League to Enforce Peace is to have the United States lead the way in forming a league of nations which will carry out the proposals of the league."

"The force that must be marshalled in order to reach that goal and successfully to maintain the position when reached is the endorsement, with understanding of a commanding number of the voters of the United States. The favorable opinion of the scholars is not enough. This force is necessary for two reasons. First, because probably no national administration would venture to bind the U. S. to such a radical step unless this step was first understood and endorsed by those people upon whose backing the administration must depend if the United States after joining this league to enforce peace, should be called upon to do its part in enforcing the peace. Second, because if any administration should so pledge the faith of our country and should afterwards be called upon upon to do its part in enforcing the peace. Second, because if any administration should so pledge the faith of our country and should afterwards be called upon upon to make good its word, its ability to do so would depend upon the strength of the public opinion endorsing the pledge. The endorsing therefore of a commanding number of the voters of this country is the force that must be marshalled in order to cause the United States to initiate the league of nations, and to make it a success when formed."

"In the United States and probably in any republic, the ultimate measure of success of the league to enforce peace will depend upon the amount and the strength of the public opinion support it means either that we are inefficient in putting our cause before the people or that when submitted to the analysis of public discussion our cause lacks sufficient merit to obtain public support; and if the latter is the case it had better be found out before this government attempts to bind its people to an agreement which can be effectively enforced only if the people understand it, believe in it and are ready to enforce it."

PRESS COMMENT ON NATIONAL GUARD.

"On the Border." Springfield, Republican—"The discreditable failure of a certain number of the militiamen in the states on the Mexican border to respond to the President's call for patrol duty emphasizes the need of a final and complete control of the militia by the federal government."

"Patriotism of Guard" Kansas City Times—"If the nation has to purchase the patriotism of the National Guard, Congress ought at least to have an understanding as to just how much it will cost."

"Attitude of Public" Des Moines Capital—"The first thing to do is to change the attitude of the public toward the National Guard. People must be taught to respect the National Guard uniform. Young men should consider it an honor and a duty to enroll."

"Faithful Officers." Montgomery Advertiser—"The friends of the guard recognize as its best asset the faithful officers who under discouraging circumstances have given their time, their efforts and their devotion to making the units of the guard capable and efficient."

"Guard Not Prepared." St. Louis Republic—"It did not require the recent experience with the National Guard of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona to prove that the guard as a whole was not prepared and was not fit to defend this nation in any sudden emergency."

"State Authorities." Pittsburgh Post—"The malicious and generally unprepared condition of the National Guard of Texas need not be taken so much as reflecting upon the men as upon the state authorities and the officers who enlisted and were supposed to have trained the guardsmen."

ALL SEEK WEALTH WHO GET THE BEST?

A Godly Heart and a Contented Mind—the Only Source of Real Gain.

Basis of Man's Discontent—Text Points the Way to Lost Treasure—True Riches Found Only in God—Source of True Contentment—Man's Vital Need of Fellowship With His Creator, Church of Christ Finds True Wealth Now—Mankind Will Find It Later.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Chicago, May 28.—Pastor Russell preached a very practical sermon here today from the text, "Godliness with contentment is great gain." (1 Timothy 6: 6.) We give a synopsis: Six thousand years ago, in Eden, man met with an irretrievable loss. He lost fellowship with God. He lost his right to life, and came under the penalty of death, because of disobedience to his Creator. Since then, man has searched unceasingly for his lost treasure, has sought in vain for happiness, rest of mind and body. Few have known the truth concerning man's lost estate, and few have found their way back to God. Four thousand years after man's fall, our Lord Jesus came to earth to lay down the price for man's release from the death penalty. He opened the way whereby Adam and all his posterity might regain that which was lost.

Today's text draws to our attention the only true gain. The Apostle is addressing the saints of God, those who have learned of God, and who are seeking to meet the conditions for gaining the true and lasting wealth. Only this class have true contentment. There is a sort of contentment which even the worldly may possess—an apathy of the brain, a carelessness or indifference; but this is not real contentment and brings no gain; for as surely as God has given us brains, just as surely does He expect us to use them.

The contentment of our text is born of faith in God, of acceptance of His terms of salvation, of the study of His Word. Those who have learned to know Him rejoice to have found the true wisdom. (James 3:17.) They have found that the godliness and contentment which bring great gain come only from a knowledge of God and of His Word. When they learned this secret of true prosperity, they became content under all conditions. They had discovered the source of life and happiness. This does not mean that they became heedless of the needs of the future, but that they no longer took anxious thought for the morrow.

Present Conditions Prove Need of God. When Adam was created, he was satisfactory to God and to himself. But when sin entered, it disturbed the relationship between God and man; and since that time God has cast mankind off from all favor. Thenceforth the race was permitted to take its own course. After six thousand years we see the results. We see the world in a very deplorable condition. Over in Europe the nations that are supposed to lead the world in civilization and intelligence are fighting one another like demons. What an illustration present conditions furnish of what man will come to when God leaves him to his own devices!

This is the very lesson which God purposes that man shall learn! We must keep ourselves in the love of God—in the condition where we shall love God, and God will love us. It is because our race has failed to do this that mankind now in their present deplorable state. Surely every heart that realizes the true cause of the sorrow, sickness, crime, misery, degradation and death on all sides could not but say, "Oh, that we were restored to the image of God, where we could be God-like, where love would dominate instead of hatred, where life and peace would prevail instead of turmoil, strife and death!"

Here the Bible comforts us with the assurance that God has a wonderful arrangement for the recovery of mankind—Restoration. (Acts 3:19-23.) The image of God, lost by the first Adam, is to be restored by the second Adam—the Lord Jesus Christ, as the King of earth and the new Father of mankind. And since Mother Eve shared in the sin which brought death, so the second Eve, the Church, will share in the regeneration which will restore man's lost estate. Knowing these things, the people of God are contented to wait for the outworking of His great Plan for human salvation.

Meanwhile, through the imputation of Christ's merit, the Church class are reckoned as perfect—justified through the blood of the Redeemer. Daily the Father tests them to demonstrate the depth of their loyalty to Himself and to the principles of righteousness. Daily they are growing in character—likeness to Christ, growing in godliness. Thus they have great gain; for he who is godly in character, and whose heart is contentedly resting in God's promises, is truly rich. There is the godliness with contentment which is pleasing in the Lord's sight, and which brings the only true gain.

THE LARGEST APPROPRIATION IN HISTORY OF CITY

It is Announced Today That the Tax Rate for 1916 Will Be $22.80, An Increase of 20c Per Thousand Over Last Year

The largest appropriation bill in the history of the City of Portsmouth, $217,413.50, gives the taxpayers of this city the highest tax rate that he or she has yet been called upon to pay, $22.80 per thousand, 20c more than in 1915. This will not strike the average taxpayer with very pleasing effect just at the present time and when everybody had been promised lower taxes and many other good things. In 1915 the total appropriation was $215,255.32. Certain influential citizens are striving to increase the manufacturing industries in this city and have been clamoring to obtain a lower tax rate. In addition to this total appropriation it may be said also that there is estimated a collection of $5,000 of back taxes, which will not and cannot be collected and which will make in reality $223,000. Of course, this amount will have to be borrowed.

ALLOTMENTS FOR JUNE WORK AT THE NAVY YARD

$75,500 for Labor and Material in Industrial Department.

The monthly allotment for the month of June for the industrial department, made by the respective bureaus at Washington, in pleasing to the naval and civilian heads of that department. In the past, June, which is the last of the government fiscal year, has always been a bad month for money and in many years it has been necessary to lay off workmen to come within the appropriation. This year, however, it looks good and more work will be done than during the corresponding months of previous years. In all the industrial department gets $75,000. The bureau of construction and repair gives us $35,500 for labor and $9,000 for material. The bureau of steam engineering allows $25,000 for labor and $7,000 for material.

With the beginning of the fiscal year in July the allotments for following months are expected to be much larger.
